1. John Lorenz Neicam, one of the oldest and best known citizens of the county, was found dead o the floor of his home five miles south of the city. His death was caused by Asthma and Heart Disease.
Mr. Neicam has been a sufferer from Asthma for several years, but had recently been in better condition than for some time, and had not been confined to his room. It was his custom to ta a dose of medicine after retiring and this was given to him at 10 o'clock Saturday night. It was supposed that he went to sleep, and no one entered his room until 6 o'clock, when one of family was sent in to arouse him for breakfast. It was found that he had got out of bed and was dead on the floor, life having evidently been gone for several hours.
Mr. Neicam was born in Bavaria, Germany in 1827 and came to America with his parents when he 13 years old. The family settled in Indiana and five years later, John Neicam came to Owensb Kentucky, a boy of 18. He secured work with Mr. Reinhardt and a short time afterward started in business for himself, using his first savings to start a Confectionery. He was attentive his business, careful in his dealings, and scrupulously honest. He was not long in building a good trade and prosperity attended him throughout his life, the same habits of industry and attention to business ever clinging to him. He retired from business about 30 years ago and bought property in the city and farming land in the county. For the past 20 years he has liv on Livermore Road four miles south of the city and gave his attention to his farming operatio In addition to one of the best farms in the county, he owns several valuable business buildin and other property in the city.
About fifty-three years age, Mr. Neicam was married to Midd Elizabeth Rupprecht of Louisville, Kentucky. She was born Feb. 13, 1829 and died April 10, 1890 at age 61. John Lorenz Neicam died December 18, 1904 at age 76. Both are buried in Owensboro, Kentucky. This data takem f the obituary that appeared in the Owensboro Newspaper. Coat of Arms

Neukam

Historiography

The Neukam Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Neukam Coat of Arms design can be found in Siebmacher's Wappenbuch. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) is as follows:

> "In S. einen von G. B. u. R. nach der Figur geteilten Halbbogen (Regenbogen) Rundung unten, die Enden und die Mitte besetzt mit je einem g. Stern, mit r. Flammen zwischen den zacken."

When translated the Arms description is:

> "Silver, a rainbow gold, blue and red, curved downward, the ends and the middle garnished each with a gold star, with red flames between the points of the stars."

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with the Neukam Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name and personal characteristics. The surname Neukam appears to be characteristic in origin, and is believed to be associated with the Germans, meaning, "one who was a newcomer." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations. The most prominent variations of Neukam are Neukomm, Neukamm and Neukumon.

Information available to us indicates that in 1971 there were approximately 150 heads of households in the United States with the old and distinguished Neukam name. The United States Census Bureau in 1970 estimated that there were approximately 3.1 persons per household in America which yields an approximate total of 465 people in the United States carrying the Neukam name. Although the figure seems relatively low, it does not signify the many important contributions that individuals bearing the Neukam name have made to history.

No genealogical representation is intended or implied by this report and it does not represent individual lineage or your family tree.

YOUR NAME AND YOUR COAT OF ARMS -- -- Priceless Gifts From History

Until about 1100 A.D. most people in Europe had only one name (This is still true in some primitive countries today). As the population increased it became awkward to live in a village wherein perhaps 1/3 of the males were named John, another sizable percentage named William, and so forth.

And so, to distinguish one John from another a second name was needed. There were four primary sources for these second names. They were: a man's occupation, his location, his father's name or some peculiar characteristic of his. Here are some examples.

Occupation: The local house builder, food preparer, grain grinder and suit maker would be named respectively: John Carpenter, John Cook, John Miller, and John Taylor.

Location: The John who lived over the hill became known as John Overhill, the one who dwelled near a stream might be dubbed John Brook or perhaps John Atbrook.

Patronymical: (father's name): Many of these surnames can be recognized by the termination---son, such as Williamson, Jackson, etc. Some endings used by other countries to indicate "son" are: Armenian's---ian, Dane's and Norwegian's ---sen, Finn's---nen, Greek's---pulos, Spaniard's---ez, and Pole's---wiecz. Prefixes denoting "son" are the Welsh---Ap, the Scot's and Irish---Mac, and the Norman's---Fitz. The Irish O' incidentally denotes grandfather.

Characteristic: An unusually small person might be labeled Small, Short, Little or Lytle. A large man might be named Longfellow, Large, Lang, or Long. Many persons having characteristics of a certain animal would be given the animal's name. Examples: a sly person might be named Fox; a good swimmer, Fish; a quiet man, Dove; etc.

In addition to needing an extra name for identification, one occupational group found it necessary to go a step further. The fighting man: The fighting man of the Middle Ages wore a metal suit of armor for protection. Since this suit of armor included a helmet that completely covered the head, a knight in full battle dress was unrecognizable. To prevent friend from attacking friend during the heat of battle, it became necessary for each knight to somehow identify himself. Many knights accomplished this by painting colorful patterns on their battle shields. These patterns were also woven into cloth surcoats which were worn over a suit of armor. Thus was born the term, "Coat of Arms."

As this practice grew more popular, it became more and more likely that two knights unknown to each other might be using the same insignia. To prevent this, records were kept that granted the right to a particular pattern to a particular knight. His family also shared his right to display these arms. In some instances, these records have been preserved and/or compiled into book form. The records list the family name and an exact description of the "Coat of Arms" granted to that family.

Interest in heraldry is increasing daily. This is especially true among people who have a measure of family pride and who resent attempts of our society to reduce each individual to a series of numbers stored somewhere in a computer. In our matter-of-fact day and age, a "Coat of Arms" is one of the rare devices remaining that can provide an incentive to preserve our heritage. We hope you'll agree that it is much more than just a wall decoration.

If you are interested in a more in-depth study of the subject of this paper, may we suggest you contact the genealogical department of any fair-sized public library. We especially recommend the "Dictionary of American Family Names" published by Harper & Row and also "The Surnames of Scotland" available from the New York Public Library as excellent sources on the meaning of surnames.

CHAPTER II

FROM THE PARENTS OF ANNA (NEUKAM) RADKE TO THE YOUNGEST OF THE RADKE CLAN

Anna Radke wife of Friedrich W. Radke was the daughter of John and Barbara Neukam. She was the youngest of their five children, being the only one of their family to be born in the United States. The remainder of the family were all natives of Bavaria, Germany.

John Neukam was born about 1799 (according to the 1850 census) and his wife Barbara about 1798 (also according to the 1850 census). The date of their marriage is not known but the birth of their first child, John, was about 1830. Their second son, John H. was born two years later. A third son George, was born 1836 and a fourth, George F. about 1839. Sometime between the years 1839 and 1842 the family of John and Barbara Neukam came to the United States.

Their fifth child, Anna was born March 27, 1842 in Indiana; possibly Harbison Township, Dubois County, as that is where the family was located at the time of the 1850 census. According to the census records John was a farmer of 300 acres in Harbison Township. The Census of 1850 states that his two oldest sons, John and John H. had also chosen farming as their profession. The date of death of John and Barbara Neukam is not known. however, his will which follows was dated March 17, 1847; so it was some time after that. There is a gravestone at the Haysville cemetery for a Johann Neukam b. Jan. 1802 and died Jan. 1854. This could be our ancestor but I can not say for sure. Often ages given on old census records are off two or three years.

There are many Neukams buried in this cemetery. The grave of John and Barbara's third son, George, is one of them. The marker of he and his wife gives us the following dates:

George Neukam b. March 18, 1836
d. March 27, 1925
wife Eva b. May 2, 1841
d. Aug. 24, 1915

The name Neukam is found spelled many different ways. In the census records it is spelled Nicum. The will book, has it spelled Nykam and cemetery markers and other family records spell it Neukam; however, it is all one and the same family.

Will Book 1 - p. 100 Dubois County Courthouse records

I John Nykam of Harbison Township Dubois County and State of Indiana, being by the mercy and favor of God, of sound mind and right understanding, yet sensible of the uncertainty of human life - Conclude hereby to publish and declare this my last will and Testament thereby revoking and making null and void others by me here-to-fore made or published or declared - To wit - I now will and so direct that my body be decently buried, corresponding with my Estate of Condition in life; that my funeral Expenses and all just and lawful debts be paid out of my Estate soon as the same can reasonably be done. Next I will and direct, that all the Estate of which I shall have seized or possessed of whatever name or kind, Real and personal, just as they are at my decease, shall pass to and rest in my beloved wife and companion in life, Barbara Nykam. To have and to use the same in all respects in the same manner, and with the right that I now do. This I do that she the said Barbara for whom I have great affection and regard may have a sufficient and comfortable subsistance during her natural life time. Further I wish it understood that my whole Estate given as above and intended as a subsistance for my beloved wife is given to her in trust offering to her whatever she may wish or want to do with the same to render her comfortable and free from restraint. Yet this trust is to her and to her alone, and not to be shared with another. Therefore if the said Barbara should after my decease marry, no part of the trust in this my last will and Testament allowed and granted to the said Barbara, Shall not pass to or vest in her next husband nor in her after marriage. In the next place I will and direct that whatever shall remain of my Estate on the decease or marriage of my wife Barbara be shared out in equal parts to my Children, share and share alike to all of them, of what is Real Estate and what is personal, I also request of my Children, one and all, that behaved respectfully and dutifully towards their mother, that they at all times afford to her assistance and aid where ever she may need the same. Lastly I hereby make and ordain my beloved wife Barbara Nykam whole Executive of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I John Nykam have hereunto set my hand and seal this 17th day of March A.D. 1847.

Johann Nykam

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named John Nykam, to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who have subscribed the same as witnesses in the presence of said Testator and of each other.

Friederich Hader

Johann Mayer

Anna Neukam married Friedrich Wilhelm Radke, October 5, 1862 in Dubois County, Indiana. They were the parents of five children; four of whom grew to adulthood. Their first child, a daughter Catharina was born August 3, 1863. Their second child, a son, (our ancestor) was born November 9, 1864 and given the name William Phillip. A second son George August Radke was born October 24, 1866. Their third son, August Friedrich, died at less than a year old. He was followed by a fourth son Jacob J. born October 4, 1870.

The Friedrich Radke children lost both their parents when they were but young children. Their mother, Anna died January 1, 1873 after which their father married Catharine Meyer, July 21, 1873. Friedrich and Kate Radke were the parents of two daughters the oldest of which died as a baby. Their second daughter Eva was born in 1876. Friedrich Radke died March 22, 1878 and was buried next to his wife Anna at the cemetery in Huntingburg, which is where the Maple Park grade school now stands. When this school was built the bodies from this old cemetery were moved to the Fairmont Cemetery on the south side of Huntingburg. After the death of Mr. Radke his second wife, Kate, married William G. Stewart; later to become the father-in-law of William P. Radke.

I have very little information about the above mentioned children of Friedrich Radke (other than our ancestor, William P.); but I will, at this time, write what I have.

Catharina, the oldest, was fondly known to the family as Aunt Kate. She was first married to Tobias Herbig by whom she had one son, Frank. After Mr. Herbig's death she married Edward Blessinger, a farmer of Bainbridge Twp. who also preceded her in death. Aunt Kate died Jan.1,1947.

George Radke never married. He lived close to his brother Bill and was a very dear uncle to Bill's children. George died August 20, 1931 and is buried at Shiloh. The article which appeared in the local paper following his death read; "He was well liked by all who knew him. He was a modest unassuming man, always attending strictly to his own affairs, but always ready to lend a helping hand to a neighbor who needed assistance." George's brother Jacob married the former Jennie Stahl of Huntingburg where they lived after their marriage. I do not have the date of his death but it was in the early 1900's.

Eva, the daughter of Friedrich and Kate Radke, was a well known teacher of Madison Twp. as a young lady. She married Thomas Asbell, a barber. They had two children, Miss Myrtle, also a teacher and Kenneth, an Indiana State Policemen. Eva died at the age of 86, February 2, 1963; her daughter Myrtle died later that same year. Kenneth Asbell died sometime in the late 1960's.

William P. Radke married Ella E. Stewart, daughter of William G. and Alatha Stewart at Ireland, Indiana; February 28, 1895. Bill Radke was a farmer near the Ireland community all his adult life. To Bill and Ella were born 12 children; two of whom died as babies.

Their first child was born December 19, 1895 and given the name William Frodrick. A little over two years later they had their first daughter. Born on their third wedding anniversary, February 28, 1898, and named Marie Carlotta. Their third child, Charles was stillborn Oct. 4 1898 Albert Stewart, was born September 30, 1899, followed by another son, Thomas Carl, born November 2, 1901. A second daughter was born October 19, 1903 and given the name Albertina Louise. She was to be followed by three brothers; Earl Jacob, born November 23, 1905; John Robert born January 12, 1909; and William Edward, born October 6, 1912. On the last day of the year 1914 a daughter, Kathrin Alatha, was born but died two days later January 2, 1915. She was buried in the Alexander Cemetery which is located on the Robert Kellams farm, south of Ireland. A few years ago a marker was placed on her grave so that it might easily be found. Their youngest daughter, Bessie Hellena was born September 6, 1916; followed by their youngest child, a son Otto Frank, born September 10, 1919.

Shortly before Otto, the youngest, was nine years old his mother died. On August 20, 1927 at the age of 52, Ella (Stewart) Radke died in St. Anthony Hospital at Louisville, Kentucky; after undergoing an operation for goiter. She was buried at Shiloh Cemetery near Ireland. Her obituary read "She was always cheerful and able to look upon the bright side of life. She was a loyal and helpful wife, a loving and sacrificing mother, and a highly respected member of her community.

William Radke lived close to a quarter of a century after the death of his beloved wife. He lived to see all of his children grow into adulthood. All seventeen of his grandchildren were born before his death at the age of 86. He died on Sunday, January 28, 1951 and was buried next to his wife at Shiloh Cemetery.

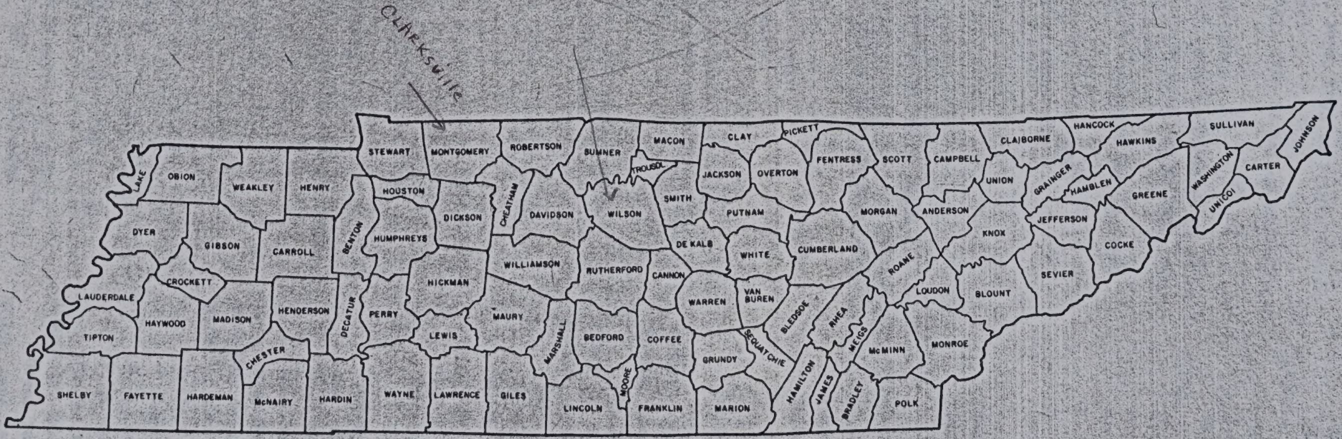
HISTORY OF Pike + Dubois Co. 1885

TENNESSEE COUNTIES, 1890 - 1910



The map above shows the boundaries of Tennessee's ninety-six counties in the period from 1890 to 1910, as adjusted by numerous acts of the Tennessee legislature. Pickett and Chester counties, authorized in 1879, were the most recent counties to be created. James County, created in 1871, was abolished in 1919 and was absorbed into Hamilton County, which, along with Bradley County, had been one of its two parent counties. James County's records reside today in Hamilton County. Since 1919 Tennessee has had ninety-five counties.

Jones, J. P., Franklin Co., N. C., that William Cooper was a lieutenant in the N. C. Cont. Line, and that Cooper marched away in the said army and never returned , and said Ham understood that Cooper was killed while in the service, was unmarried, and left one brother, Robert Cooper, who now lives in Franklin Co., N. C.; 14 July 1821. Robert Cooper, only lawful heir of William Cooper, transferred the warrant to Andes Jones; 1821.

No. 166. James Cronister, private in the N.C. Cont. Line; 640 acres; issued 25 Nov. 1808.

No. 163. Heirs of James Carmady, private in the N.C. Cont. Line; 640 acres of land within the limits of land reserved for officers and soldiers of the N.C. Cont. Line; issued 17 Sept. 1808. Elizabeth Hanes, only heir of James Carmady, dec., assigned the warrant to Reuben P. Jones, who assigned it to Frederick B. Nelson on 23 Sept. 1813. In the same month Nelson assigned it to John C. McLemore.

No. 124. Thomas Creecy, on account of a balance due for the services performed by William Luppencute, musician in the N. C. Line; 360 acres; issued 14 Dec. 1805. In Jan. 1806 Creecy assigned the warrant to William Clemens, who assigned it to Thomas N. Clark.

No. 1036. John Cotants, a soldier in the N.C. Cont. Line. Jeesey Cherry, administrator of John Cotants (Concante), endorses the warrant to William Cherry to have surveyed, 2 July 1796. On 2 July 1796 William Cherry assigned it to Samuel Barton, Thomas King and Noah Lilley, witnesses. 13 Aug. 1796, Samuel Barton assigned the warrant to James Saunders. 29 Sept. 1807, James Saunders assigned the warrant to William Davidson, with John Lowery, Daniel Griffin, and Johncon Lowery, Joseph Cummins (?) and Robert Cooper, witnesses. (Paper is in very bad condition).

No. 384. Heirs of Thomas Caswell, corporal, 428 acres within the limits of land reserved for officers and soldiers of the N.C. Cont. Line; issued 3 Aug. 1820. Uriah Caswell, one of the heirs of soldier Thomas Caswell, transferred the warrant to Lawrence Cherry. Milley Bateman, another heir of Thomas Caswell, also transferred her right to the warrant to Lawrence Cherry.

No. 670. Heirs of Hugh Curren, private; 640 acres; issued 27 March 1821. 5 July 1822, Benjamine Hester of Granville Co., N. C., made oath that he knew Hugh Curren, Sr., and Elisha Curren, who enlisted as a soldier in the Troop of Horse under Capt. John Sickerson or Dickerson for two years and six months in the N.C. Cont. Line, and served in the same until they both died in the Rev. War, and Hester further stated that Hugh Curren is the only rightful male heir to the deceased Hugh and Elijah Curren.

No. 582. Heirs of William Campbell, corporal in the N.C. Line; land within the limits of that reserved for officers and soldiers in the Cont. Line; issued 12 Sept. 1820. On 13 Sept. 1820 William Campbell of Beaufort Co., N.C., only true and lawful heir of continental soldier William Campbell, conveyed the warrant to George Brown.

No. 689. Heirs of John Carney, private; 640 acres. Carney was a soldier in the N C. Cont. Line in the Rev. War; issued 21 July

IN EXPLANATION

The information in this book was taken from micorfilm obtained from the Kentucky State Archives.

Abbreviations Used:

Ch. Co. - - Christian County, Kentucky
res. - - - residence
md. - - - - married

Many surnames were so similar in sound and spelling that they are grouped together in the index. There may be more than one listing of a surname on a page.

The same name may appear more than once with slightly varying information. In some instances the information will differ with that given in other sources. This was copied exactly as it appeared on the film and it will be up to the user of this book to determine the correct listing.

All births took place in Christian County, Kentucky unless a specific place was given. This also applies to the residence of the parents.

All places given are in Kentucky unless otherwise stated. Some of the places given simply denote a certain area of Christian County, Kentucky.

Hi everyone,

School pictures have begun to come in. Here is Alex -- she is 11 years old now and in the 6th grade at Northwood Middle School. She is getting to be such a pretty girl -- she is doing very well in school also. She has made the Jr. Varsity Volleyball team too!!! Way to go Alex. She is very excited about Middle School and her grades are showing it. Well here she is -- hope to see you all soon.

Have a great one,

Patty

Hi Everyone,

School pictures are here -- here is Robbie -- he is in the 10th grade at Northrup High School. He is 15 years old -- well in 1 1/2 weeks he will be 16. Since he will be 16 you can guess what he wants -- well in order to get his license he has to be passing all his classes with nothing less than a C -- guess what he is passing them all. Way to go Rob!!!! To be honest though -- him driving scares the shit out of me. Well I guess they all grow up huh!!

Have a great day

Funerals Are For The Living

The funeral service is for the living because it enables family and friends to gather to express their feelings. It's a time to pay tribute, reflect on memories, gain strength from others and begin to accept one of life's many changes. A funeral service lets you and those close to you say goodbye and begin the healing process.

Your presence at this funeral is of immeasurable value. You're contributing to a fellowship of support extended to the family and relatives. For them, your attendance is comforting and reassuring. They know that you care and want to acknowledge the life that was lived. By being here, you're helping to make this service a memorable one.

in Loving Memory

The Lord is my shepherd,
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures; he leadeth me
beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth
me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
